R.A. BANKSON

SUCCEEDS HULL

AS PRD CHIEF

Previous to his acceptance of the WRA post, he has had 29 years of experience as a professional journalist. He was a copy editor of the Spokane-Review and city editor of the Spokane Chronicle. Besides writing articles in major magazines, he has had 5 novels published and 3 others serialized in magazines.

His eldest son is an infantry captain, the next is an air corps lieutenant and the youngest is studying for a commission as ensign in the US Naval Reserve.

On his arrival at Topaz, Bankson commented: "I am amazed how this large and well-developed city could have been built up out of nothing in such a short time. I am so pleased with my new friendly associates."

early this week. The winning team was followed closely by Dr. Ochikubo and Ichiro Sasaki of Block 23.

A contract bridge club open to all residents is now being planned, Yabe asserted.

Regulations governing hiking trips taken by residents were listed recently by the Community Activities Section. It is warned that any infraction of these rules, which cover parties leaving the City during the hours from 6 AM to 6 PM, will cause a retraction of these privileges.
